

Provide Your Independent Contractors with the Advantage They Need to Start Their New Fleet

Based on the latest legal climate, many independent contractors may soon be faced with the difficult decision on whether to re-classify and establish themselves as standalone fleet operators. This can be a daunting task and comes with many upfront expenses, and a change in their cashflow outlook.

With CarrierHQ, we offer flexible payment options, which can lower those upfront start-up costs and free up more cash. And with our easy-to-use technology and services, we can help new and existing fleets immediately.

We have partnered with industry leaders to deliver the following services:

Business Formation

- Business entity application
- Operating authority application
- IFTA permit application

Fleet Operations

- Trucking Insurance
- Factoring
- Authorized GeoTab Telematics Reseller

If you are interested in helping your independent contractors to establish their new fleets quickly and easily, then count on CarrierHQ as your trusted partner for fleet conversion.
